Welcome to the Crail Community Hall Newsletter

With Autumn arriving the varied programme at Crail Community Hall gathers momentum.

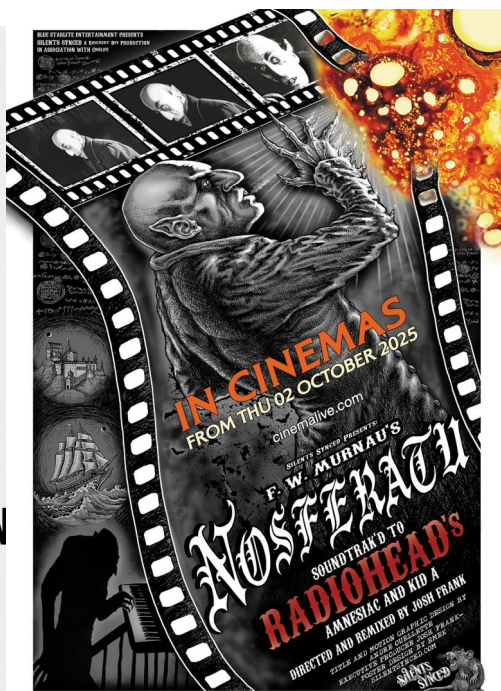

A return of the Scottish Opera Highlights unites four singers, a pianist, and a selection of operatic extracts from many eras and styles woven into an original narrative celebrating all facets of the human experience. Scottish Opera Head of Music Fiona MacSherry compiles the music from the best bits of Pagliacci, Romeo and Juliet, Die Fledermaus, and more – all sung in English to make this one-of-a-kind show immediately accessible to audiences. Perfect for operatic newcomers, old-timers, and everyone in between, Opera Highlights is a fantastic night of entertainment and storytelling.

In contrast to this the team at CCH is delighted to offer for the first time a very different experience. A Silent Movie Night featuring Nosferatu—A Symphony of Horror. This reimagining of the iconic Nosferatu (1922) features Radiohead's Kid A (2000) and Amnesiac (2001) albums. Silents Synced pairs classic silent movies with epic rock music to bring audiences a unique big screen experience. Don't miss out on this imaginative new take on an iconic horror classic! Right in time for Halloween.

For yet another musical highlight we will welcome Ian Watt playing classical guitar. Different things for different people—but hopefully, something for everyone. Whatever event you fancy make sure you secure your tickets now.
