Welcome to the Crail Community Hall Newsletter

2025 events at the Hall are in full swing.

Our theatre screenings are selling out quickly. Make sure you get your tickets for Oscar Wild's Classic The Importance of Being Earnest and our April screening of Dr Strangelove.

To fill the time between those theatre treats we are delighted to welcome The East Fife Male Voice Choir. This is a rare opportunity to hear between 30 and 40 male voices singing in four part harmony. We are expecting an exciting programme. Rachie, Guardian Angel, Gloria, Cavatina, Halleluja, Worried Man Blues, Speed Your Journey, Soldiers Chorus, Cole Porter Medley, Wellerman, Seal Lullaby, African Trilogy, Bring Him Home, I Dreamed a Dream, Do You Hear the People Sing. The choir performances will be interspersed with fabulous solos.

On popular demand Les Trois Blondes are back for a very French Sunday afternoon. Dress up, bring your own food and drink and be inspired to some dancing.

Our first Sunday afternoon concert of the year with The Fountaineers was well received by a substantial audience. This concert was organised with the help of Live Music Now Scotland, an organisation that strives to make music accessible to everyone in Scotland. We are looking to work with them on a more regular basis and are hoping for your ongoing support for our concerts.

Further information and ticket links can be found on our website <https://www.crailcommunityhall.co.uk/blog> or follow us on facebook <https://www.facebook.com/> Tickets for all our events are available through <https://www.ticketsource.co.uk/crail-community-partnership>

See you soon!

East Fife Male Voice Choir Concert

3 pm - Sunday, 23 February 2025
Crail Community Hall

Enjoy an afternoon listening to the fantastic sounds of the East Fife Male Voice Choir.

It has about 50 voices singing in four part harmony (1st Tenor, 2nd Tenor, Bariton and Bass). They will perform a selection of their wide-ranging repertoire of music from classical and opera through religious music and traditional Scottish songs to folk music as well as songs from the musicals. Something to suit all tastes!

Tickets £10 - BYOB
