Welcome to the Crail Community Hall 'Crail Festival Edition' Newsletter

The Crail Festival, with its many exciting events, is not too far away now. From the 20th to the 30th of July Crail will be, once again, the hub for a wide range of activities for young and old, from music and theatre to arts and crafts. There will be a lot of fun, culture and entertainment to be had during this popular, ten-day Festival. Check out the details on their website:
<https://www.craifestival.org/>

Among many other indoor and outdoor venues Crail Community Hall will be one of the hubs providing a comfortable space for concerts and shows.

On seven out of the ten Festival evenings the Hall will either be buzzing with music, provide some magical entertainment or a quiz challenge.

Starting with the 'Queens of the Blues' you'll experience a celebration of the women who have shaped blues and popular music as we know it. Followed by the 'The Soul Sisters' who continue the theme of women in music, taking you back in time to Motown Madness, Soul Sensations and the Swinging 60's. Before we move on to the next music event, your brain will be in demand at the Festival Quiz. After that the 'Tenement Jazz Band' will capture the raw energy and excitement of the earliest jazz recordings at their first appearance in Crail.

The last two Festival events at the Hall will bring you the fantastic Edwina Hayes (in collaboration with the Crail Folk Club) before Richard Digance, a BAFTA nominated entertainer and a recipient of the Gold Award from The British Academy of Composers, will conclude the activities on July 30th with the final event of the 2022 Crail Festival. Edwina was a sell out on her last Festival visit and is a much anticipated appearance, especially with a new album not long out.

From September the Hall will be back to its own programme starting with concerts in September and October followed by a Murder Mystery Dinner and the Christmas Fayre.

See you soon!
