

Welcome to the Crail Community Hall Newsletter

We are nearly at the end of the Hall's own events until we start our autumn/winter programme. Our French themed Sunday afternoon in March went down a treat and attracted a big audience who had loads of fun. There are still some more highlights to come before the focus of the Hall shifts to private parties, weddings and events organised by community groups to raise funds for their varied activities. Among them are the annual Air Ambulance Coffee Morning, Seaqueen fundraisers, Crail Festival and indoor market, and much more.

However, don't miss out on the Easter Weekend Craft Fair featuring loads of interesting new stalls among some old favourites. We'll have textiles, seaglass and beach craft, cards, paintings and print, soaps and scented wares as well as food and drink, and Whoopie Bakes from St Andrews running the Café. Make sure your Easter walk will bring you past Crail Community Hall.

Unfortunately, due to the lack of interest we had to cancel our Harp Day with Karen Marshalsay. Therefore, both the kid's event and the evening concert are not taking place on April 6th.

However, a concert of a different type will rock the hall on May 25th with Liz Jones & Broken Windows are returning to Crail. Real songs, original music, unpolished natural energy. A six piece down to earth band of eclectic, world toured and well versed musicians, fronted by an idiosyncratic driving force vocalist and songwriter

Don't forget the hall is available for private celebrations throughout the year.
